MASTER THE ENTIRE NECK USING 3 SIMPLE EXERCISES

LESSON DESCRIPTION

Join Scott Devine as he demonstrates three of his best exercises to help you break free of the same old pattern, and gain the ability to move up and down the neck with confidence.

MASTER THE ENTIRE NECK

Exercise #1:
HOW TO LEARN THE
5 ESSENTIAL PENTATONIC SHAPES
(2:03)

» The GOAL: Instead of relying on the "same old shape" most of us already know, see the pentatonic scales all over the fingerboard of the bass.

» Memorize the SHAPES — it's not necessary to memorize the notes.

Exercise #2:
USING 2-STRING GROUPINGS
(6:19)

- For this next set of exercises, instead of starting at the lowest note, we'll start at the highest note possible in the different areas of the fretboard. We can do this for three different 2-string groupings.
- Lets's start with the D and G strings:

2-String Groupings • D and G Strings • Shape #1

2-String Groupings • D and G Strings • Shape #2

MASTER THE ENTIRE NECK

2-String Groupings • D and G Strings • Shape #3

2-String Groupings • D and G Strings • Shape #4

2-String Groupings • D and G Strings • Shape #5

MASTER THE ENTIRE NECK

• Next, lets's move to the A and D strings:

2-String Groupings • A and D Strings • Shape #1

2-String Groupings • A and D Strings • Shape #2

2-String Groupings • A and D Strings • Shape #3

MASTER THE ENTIRE NECK

2-String Groupings • A and D Strings • Shape #4

2-String Groupings • A and D Strings • Shape #5

MASTER THE ENTIRE NECK

• Finally, lets's move to the E and A strings:

2-String Groupings • E and A Strings • Shape #1

2-String Groupings • E and A Strings • Shape #2

2-String Groupings • E and A Strings • Shape #3

MASTER THE ENTIRE NECK

2-String Groupings • E and A Strings • Shape #4

2-String Groupings • E and A Strings • Shape #5

» Practicing these 2-string groupings will help you to further engrain the major pentatonic shapes into your playing.

Exercise #3:
USING EXTENDED PENTATONIC SCALES
(8:44)

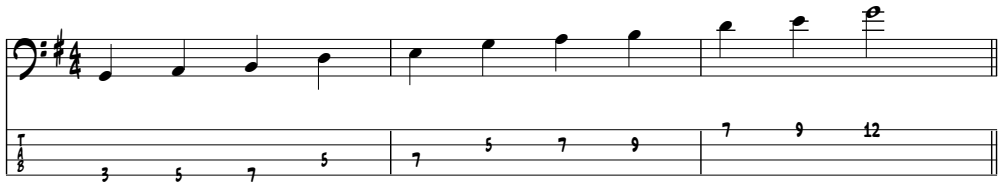
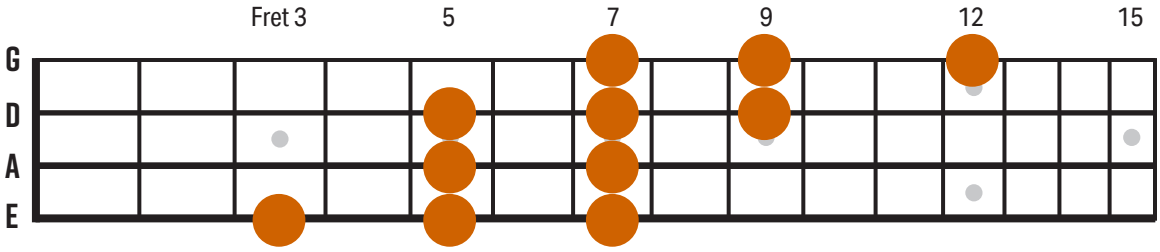
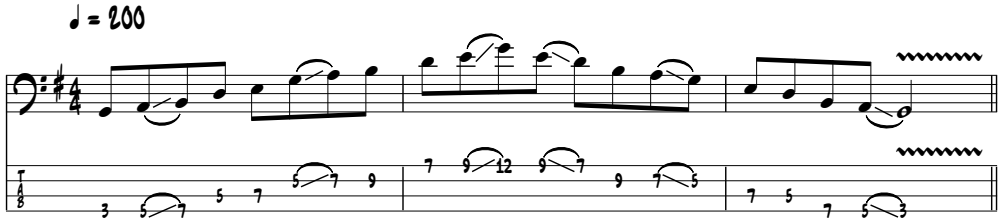
- For this next exercise, simply start with one of the shapes of the major pentatonic from Exercises 1 or 2 and slice through the fretboard by linking it together with teh other shapes.

- For example, here's a pentatonic lick starting on the low G note and ending on the G note two octaves higher:





- Played at speed, we might have something like this (10:05):



- Explore the fretboard to find different ways to connect the patterns.
- Start on different notes of the scale and piece the patterns together!

> "This stuff is golden for bass players—it's really stuff that you're gonna be using every single time that you pick up the bass if you really learn it thoroughly."
